

Some One

I am just a little nobody
With a bad ugly bleeding body

My thoughts are full with despair
And suffering make me anger

I don't have any future
And my past is a real failure

But when I see your smile
Or when I call your line

It seems that times stops
And I fell like a raining drop

Then I believe I am some one
And I truly find a good reason

To continue to be here and stay
To hope you'll be there one day

All the words sounds so pretty
And the entire world seems so happy

At last my hart is madly beating
And my eyes are lovely crying

Joy and wisdom are lighting like thunder
And everything is a beautiful wonder
